

Tzohar and Torah in Motion invite you to a Three Day

MISSION in ISRAEL:

Two Worlds: The Intersection Between Religious and Secular in Israel

Dec. 30th, 2013 - Jan. 1st, 2014

Luxury accommodation • Gourmet meals • Air conditioned transportation • Meetings with leading Rabbis and lay leaders

The intersection of religion and secular life plays a role in every major debate in the public arena in the State of Israel. From conversion, to marriage, to the very nature of the State, the struggle for the soul of Israel hinges on this fundamental issue. During this exciting three-day tour, you will learn in detail about some of the challenges these issues present, and some of the ways Israelis are working to address them.